REFUSING TO ENTER, MAN
IS CARRIED IN HOSPITAL

Patient Resents Action of Ambulance Attendants and Orderly Uses Force.

William Sincow, who works in the livery stable of Frank A. Beck, was painfully injured in a runaway yesterday afternoon. He was thrown from the vehicle in which he was driving and sustained injuries to his back.

The City Dispensary ambulance was called and though Sincow insisted on being taken to the livery stable, he was removed to the hospital.

Since then refused to enter, and was taken bodily in the arms of an orderly, and carried inside. The extent of his injuries is not yet known.

CYRUS HUBBARD.
Due to Jury's Action, He Escapes Trial for Brother's Murder.

JAMES O'LEARY.
Held for Wife-Murder, But Who Gained Freedom Yesterday.

BAN OF MURDER CHARGE
REMOVED, AND TWO ARE FREE

Hubbard and O'Leary, Held at Jail, Are Discharged After Jury's Action.

HAVE NARROW ESCAPES

One Fight with Brother, the Other with Wife and Pneumonia.

Two alleged murderers, James O'Leary and Cyrus Hubbard, were released from the county jail yesterday, O'Leary because of a lack of evidence and Hubbard because the grand jury was convinced that he acted in self-defense when he killed his brother Otis. O'Leary was arrested Feb. 15 for the murder of his wife, who died at the City Hospital, where she was taken while ill with pneumonia. It was discovered by physicians that she was also suffering from the charge of murder to be brought against O'Leary. This theory was not shared by the police, and since the death of Deputy Coroner Geis the matter has been dropped. Hubbard, believing himself in danger of being attacked by his brother Otis, struck him on the head with a billiard cue in the saloon of Patrick Moriarty, on Martindale avenue. This tragedy occurred about the 14th of March. It was shown that Otis had followed Cyrus and had endeavored to provoke a fight. When cornered Cyrus defended himself, and the blow rendered the younger Hubbard unconscious. He was taken to room over the saloon, and was found there dead the next day.

PROTEST IS MADE TO NEW ADDITION

Plat of Lots for Annexation Has No Provision for Boulevard.

A large number of persons owning property between Thirty-second and Fifty-first streets, along the line of the proposed Washington boulevard, appeared before the Board of Works yesterday to protest against the board's recent action in approving the plat of Arthur V. Brown's East Meridian Heights addition to the city.

It is claimed that the plat of the new addition, along the line of the boulevard, makes no provision for carrying out the boulevard through it, and as it is proposed to be made the main roadway extending north to Broad street, the protest is in its extension and preservation are up in arms against what they term the obstruction to its course. The matter was referred by the Board of Works to the city attorney for advice. The board has before it a petition setting forth the property owners' objections to the Brown plat.

TO GIVE FLOWER SEEDS TO SCHOOL CHILDREN

Officers of Civic Improvement Society Will Begin a Novel Distribution.

Officers of the Civic Improvement Society will begin active work this week in distributing flower seeds among the school children. President Woolton and Secretary Hoover will visit the Washington school on Wednesday and will present the children with packages of seeds, to be planted at their homes. On Thursday they will go to the school on Morris street, and on Friday to North Indianapolis. From time to time during the spring months of the schools of the city will be visited and given liberal supplies of seeds.

HOSPITAL ORDERLY HELD FOR ROBBING PATIENTS

Two Offenses Charged to Thomas Carney, Who Was with "Wild" West Show.

Thomas Carney, an orderly at the City Hospital, has been stealing money from hospital patients, according to the charges which have landed him behind the bars at the city jail.

Carney has been in jail before and claims at one time to have been a cowboy with a "Wild West" show. He has been at the City Hospital different times during the last four months and was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detectives Gerber and Trimpe.

He is said to have stolen $2.50 from Charles Stephens and $14 from David Waddell. Both Stephens and Waddell are confined to their beds in the hospital and the money was taken from their clothing.

STATE GEOLOGIST

BOLD CRACKSMEN MAKE A TARGET OF THEIR VICTIM

Bullets Fly When Grocer Hears His Safe Blown—Thieves Exhibit Professional Skill.

ARC LIGHT KICKED OUT

A safe in the grocery of William Lichtenberg, Ohio and Liberty streets, was blown open at 4 o'clock Monday morning by two men, who immediately made their escape.

Mr. Lichtenberg is in the habit of leaving the outer doors to his safe unlocked and standing open, since his cash is always deposited elsewhere during the night.

Mrs. Digge, who lives across the street from the scene of the robbery, saw two men come to the corner and after looking in all directions one of them lowered the arc light, which is suspended over the street crossing, and extinguished it by shooting it with his foot. The other then gained entrance to the grocery by forcing the door and one of them remained outside while the other entered to complete the work.

The knob of the safe's inner doors was removed and an explosion was heard. The noise of the explosion awakened Mr. Lichtenberg, who lives in rooms over his grocery, and he rushed to the front window, raised it and looked into the street. The report of a revolver followed and a bullet whistled past his head. He procured his own revolver and fired several times in the air to attract attention. Meanwhile the safeblower, having opened the inner doors, extracted the small metal box with which money is ordinarily kept and with this under his arm he fled, taking also three bottles of whisky.

Detectives who were detailed to the case believe that it is the work of professionals and think that they will be able to trace the men.

OWNERS OF VEHICLES
MAY BE PROSECUTED

Laxity in License Payments Will Probably Be Followed by Action.

A comparison of the receipts of the city controller's office in vehicle and bicycle permits for all of the year up to yesterday evening with the corresponding period of last year shows that 1904 is traveling several thousand dollars behind 1903, although the receipts of the office in those fees last year reached $384, the maximum.

Up to April 18, last year, $384 dollar licenses had been paid, 2,388 $2 licenses, 3,321 $1 licenses, 1,170 $5 licenses, sixty-one $6 licenses, 113 $8 licenses, a total of $23,301. At 5 o'clock yesterday evening $12,301 for this year had been paid as follows: 6,866 dollar licenses, 1,927 $2 licenses, 1,358 $5 licenses, 66 $6 and 111 of $8 each, a total of $23,301. This is $1,000 less than for the corresponding period in 1903.

The number of miscellaneous licenses paid this year, which considerable attention has been paid to this year, will make the difference some what less. The city controller is considering the advisability of making a few prosecutions of delinquent license payers in order to persuade those who are still out to pay a fine in Police Court or violation of the city ordinance.

REFUSES GOOD PLACE.

Rather than Leave Mother, Man Sticks to Railway Service.

Rather than desert his aged mother, who lives near Canton, O., and relies on him for her sole support, N. H. Keister has refused an appointment in seaport service and has decided to continue his work as a railway mail clerk. The seaport service gives a man an opportunity of earning $12 a month and also a salary of $120 per year. The service is between New York and Liverpool. On the twenty-eighth day of every month the boats leave New York, where they remain one week.

PAINTERS LOSE MONEY
BY COMPETITIVE AWARD

Are Forced to Accept Less than Contract Figure for Decorating Tomlinson Hall.

The award of the contract for painting the interior of Tomlinson Hall to Fertig & Kevers by the Board of Public Works yesterday is of interest for the fact that the contract price, $2,300, is $200 less than the price for which the same firm was to do the work some days ago by private contract.

In order to get the work done before the performance of "Parsifal" in Tomlinson Hall the Board of Public Works made a contract with Fertig & Kevers without advertising for bids for $2,400. This action was afterwards rescinded at the advice of the city attorney, as it was contrary to an express provision of the charter for the making of contracts for public works, and bids were advertised for in the regular manner.

Other bids submitted in answer to this advertisement were by F. J. Mack & Co., $3,200, and by Hugh H. Range, $4,500.

Changes Made in P. O. Force.

The orders received several days ago relative to the changes in the Indianapolis postoffice went into effect yesterday. O. A. Kelly took the place of William R. Carson, assistant superintendent of the money order department, and Carson filled John W. Brown's position of record clerk. John W. Brown and Edgar F. Brown hereafter will hold the position of inquiry clerk, held by David Elliot. George F. Corley, a registered clerk, took the place of Mr. Kelly in the money department and Clarence J. Sullivan, Louis J. Baker and Col. Russell B. Harrison, board of managers.

CANDY KETTLE EXPLODES;
HOT SYRUP BURNS FOREMAN

Painful Injuries Follow Accident in Confectionery Establishment—Woman Is Hurt.

OTHERS ESCAPE HURTS

William M. Hufford, foreman in the candy factory of the Krull-Nichols Company, at Georgia and Meridian streets, was seriously burned by the explosion of a steam candy kettle on the fourth floor of the establishment yesterday afternoon. Miss Clara Colcher, 906 Horton street, one of the employees, was standing fifteen feet distant at the time of the explosion, and was painfully burned. The accident occurred just as Hufford had finished inspecting a fifteen-gallon kettle of boiling syrup. The force of the explosion threw him to the floor. He was severely burned on the face, chest and arms, and was removed to his home by a physician's care. Miss Colcher was not dangerously injured. It is thought that some of the rivets in the long-used kettle became weak and caused it to explode. The fragments of the kettle did not scatter through the room, but stuck to the pipes which surrounded it, and to this fact is due the escape of the other employees.

BOY'S NEGLIGENCE CAUSES A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE

Youth, in Fright, Forgets to "Pull" Fire Box and Three Houses Burn.

Two houses at 16, 18 and 20 Beville avenue were totally destroyed by fire which originated from a defective fire yesterday morning. Mrs. Louise Stottelmeier, her two daughters, two sons and four boarders occupy No. 20, in which the fire started. The fire was discovered by a small son of Mrs. Stottelmeier. His mother at first thought he was joking and told him to return to bed. When the fire had gained headway neighbors were aroused and Charles Le Page, a small boy, ran to a fire box, opened the door, but forgot to pull the lever. The fire in the court came from the watchman in the court and the flames had spread to the house adjoining owned by Mrs. R. Helen Wildan and occupied by Charles Leaphart and J. H. Likens. Both houses were destroyed. A small boy, Le Page, sustaining a loss of $1,200 in addition to the furniture. The damage to the double house is estimated at $1,400. Mrs. Stottelmeier carried no insurance. Fireman A. E. Lenihan, of hose company No. 20, fell through the roof of the Stottelmeier house and was painfully burned during the fire.

UNLICENSED SALOON'S
OWNER LEAVES CITY

A saloon on South Delaware street, now closed, but which formerly was operated without a license, is causing trouble to the revenue authorities, who cannot locate the offender. It is said that he has left the city.

When they found Daniel O'Connell, to whom the saloon was sold by William and Robert Stuck, of Indianapolis, Albert and Carl C. Wiley, of Indianapolis, Albert E. Martz, of Arcadia, Warren D. Cole, of Paris, Ind., and C. W. Martz, of Arcadia, at the conclusion of the talks the society adjourned to the dining room and brought the evening to a close with an informal luncheon.

Officers of the Indiana Society are: William Allen Wood, president; Newton Booth Tarkenton, vice president; Ernest Byron Cole, secretary; Harry A. Adams, treasurer; Scott Smith, registrar; Stanley C. Hughes, chaplain; Lewis Brown, William L. Elder, Louis J. Baker and Col. Russell B. Harrison, board of managers.
